Re: Request for Information (RFI) – Expanding Substance Use Services in Wayne County

Eastpointe is requesting information from Eastpointe’s Network Providers who currently have a full Medicaid or IPRS contract with Eastpointe who are interested in offering Substance Use Services for our members in Wayne County. These are important services that are needed for our members and we look forward to responses from our Provider Network to the RFI.

Location and Services Needed

- The expectation is that the physical site will be located in Wayne County.
- This RFI is for providers to provide the following services:
 - Substance Use Outpatient services
 - Opioid Treatment Services (Opioid Maintenance Therapy (MAT))
 - Substance Abuse Intensive Outpatient Program (SAIOP)
 - Substance Abuse Comprehensive Outpatient Treatment (SACOT) services.

Qualifications

- Providers must be deemed in Good Standing by Eastpointe.
- Providers must be able to obtain a license through the Division of Health Service Regulation for SAIOP and SACOT.
- Providers must have licensed staff as required by the relevant Clinical Coverage Policies to provide the services.
- The Outpatient Opioid Treatment would include methadone or buprenorphine maintenance and must be licensed.
